SANCTIONS:

Consequences	Description
Verbal Warning	A verbal reminder to the student about expected behavior and potential consequences of further violations.
Written Warning	A formal notification to the student that their behavior is not acceptable and may lead to further consequences if it persists.
Detention	The student stays after school for a specified period as a consequence for their actions. During detention, they may be required to complete assignments, reflect on their behavior, or engage in constructive activities.
Parent/Guardian Notification	Parents/guardians are informed about the incident and the corresponding consequences to keep them involved and informed in the resolution process.
Restorative Actions	Actions aimed at helping students understand the impact of their behavior and make amends. This may include community service, mediation, conflict resolution, or character development workshops.
Counseling and Intervention	Referral to the guidance and counseling department for additional support and intervention to address underlying issues, develop coping mechanisms, and make positive changes in behavior.
Suspension	Temporary removal of a student from school for a designated period, during which they are not allowed to attend classes or participate in school activities.
Expulsion	Permanent removal of a student from the school due to serious or repeated violations of the school's code of conduct. Expulsion results in the student no longer being allowed to attend Tagoloan Senior High School.
